

Prince, Donald L.
Lieutenant Commander

Class of 1956

K/AC on December 22nd, 1964

During a storm in Arcata, CA, LCDR Prince took off with his crew. Using the radio beacon to navigate himself to the airport, he began to fly on instruments alone. Shortly afterwards the radio beacon failed, the helicopter was blown east by terrific winds and crashed into nearby mountains.
