

Prince, Donald L.

Lieutenant Commander

Class of 1956

K/AC on December 24th, 1956

During a storm in Arcada, CA, Lt. Cmd. Prince took off with his crew. Using the radio beacon to navigate himself to the airport, he began to fly on instruments alone. Shortly afterwards the radio beacon failed, the helicopter was blown east by terrific winds and smashed into nearby mountains.