

Peterson, Carl U.
Lieutenant Commander

Class of 1930

KIA on June 16th, 1943

Lt.Cmd. Peterson was the commanding officer of the cutter USCCG ESCANABA which was sunk in the North Atlantic while escorting a convoy with a loss of all but two crewmen. He was posthumously awarded the Legion of Merit for rescue operation in behalf of an American transport earlier that year.
