Marketing Statement

The U.S. Coast Guard Academy is a highly selective federal military college that provides a rigorous undergraduate program and is committed to building a diverse faculty of teacher scholars who collaborate to provide a multi-disciplinary and hands-on approach to learning and leadership development. We believe that individuals from diverse backgrounds strengthen our programs and positively impact student success. We encourage qualified applicants from all backgrounds to apply for consideration.

The attractive riverside campus is home to a nationally and internationally representative student body of about 1,000 diverse Cadets. The Academy provides the professional education and training required to prepare young women and men for careers as commissioned officers in the U. S. Coast Guard, one of our Nation's five Armed Services. The Academy offers B.S. degrees in nine academic majors: Naval Architecture/Marine Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Cyber Systems, Civil Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, Marine/Environmental Sciences, Operations Research/Data Analytics, Management, and Government. The Academy is located near the shoreline of southeastern Connecticut, midway between New York City and Boston, and is within commuting range of regional, as well as national, colleges and universities in the CT/RI/MA tri-state area. The U.S. Coast Guard Academy is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Visit https://www.uscga.edu for more information.

Summary

This position is located at the U.S. Coast Guard Academy in New London, CT. The desired start date is July 30, 2023.

Major Duties

The major duties will be to develop, teach, and assess curriculum that are common to undergraduate business courses. Primary teaching responsibilities will include courses in management, marketing, or other courses in areas of expertise. Additional teaching responsibilities can include senior projects, as needed and as appropriate, foundational business, business law or leadership courses. The standard teaching load for a full-time lecturer is 9-12 credit hours per semester but can vary depending on institutional and/or Coast Guard needs. The selectee, in coordination with other faculty, will develop (as appropriate) syllabi, course readings, assignments, class projects, and other pedagogical assessments of student learning and assessments of course outcomes. The selectee will also participate in planning and co-curricular aspects of the courses as necessary. In coordination with other faculty and staff members, the selectee will also be expected to participate directly with maintenance of the School’s AACSB accreditation. Major duties will also include advising cadets and participation in leadership and professional development activities with students outside of class and in service to the Academy.

Qualifications

Minimum degree requirements:

The successful applicant must possess a Ph.D. degree or equivalent in Business Administration or Management. Doctoral candidates in “ABD” status are required to provide documentation that they will complete the terminal degree by July 30, 2023.

Minimum specialized experience:

a. Must meet the minimum academic qualification of “scholarly academic” according to AACSB standards and the Department of Management’s definition for faculty qualification. Specifically, this means the applicant must demonstrate:

- Evidence of productive in-discipline scholarship or intellectual contributions. Scholarly activity/research/intellectual contributions may include (not an exhaustive list): publication in peer-reviewed academic journals, proceedings from scholarly meetings, papers presented at faculty research seminars, book reviews, written cases with instructional materials, and other refereed publications; and

- At least two of the listed items for scholarly activity/research/intellectual contributions must be within the five preceding years.

b. Experience with independent teaching at the college level is required.

In addition to meeting the minimum education and specialized experience criteria outlined above, preferred candidates will have the following:

A Ph.D. degree or equivalent in Business Administration or Management, preferably from an AACSB-accredited institution.

An education and background to teach senior projects, as needed and as appropriate, foundational business, business law, or leadership courses. Candidates with cross-disciplinary expertise in various management related disciplines are highly desired.

Demonstrated commitment to teaching excellence and leadership development at the undergraduate level. Candidates are required to submit evidence of teaching effectiveness and a teaching philosophy describing their pedagogical approaches that greatly enhance student learning in a diverse and inclusive environment.

Demonstrated contributions to student learning and development outside of the classroom.

Demonstrated experience consistent with full commitment to the Coast Guard core values of Honor, Respect, and Devotion to Duty. Potential to further the mission of the Coast Guard Academy through professional recognition via research, professional service, and/or education outreach.

Classroom experience teaching and mentoring diverse student populations, and/or experience promoting diversity initiatives, including efforts at creating communities of inclusion.

Superior demonstrable interpersonal and communication skills.

A record that demonstrates strong teamwork skills and a desire to work in a diverse and collaborative environment.

Requirements

All qualification requirements must be met by the date application materials are submitted or as otherwise specified.

Education Requirements

FOREIGN EDUCATION: Education completed in foreign colleges or universities may be used to meet the requirements. You must show proof the education credentials have been deemed to be at least equivalent to that gained in a conventional U.S. education program. It is your responsibility to provide such evidence when applying. Note 1: This email address is case-sensitive.

Note 2: Please ensure the vacancy announcement number is included in the subject line of your email: 23-1857-WE-SR-AD

Note 3: Priority consideration will be given to applications submitted in their entirety by 11:59 PM ET on the first cutoff date of the announcement. Each file must be titled using the naming protocol described below.

Note 4: Illegible transcripts and/or illegible documents such as DD214, authorization to work in the U.S., etc., may render the package incomplete and the candidate may not be referred for consideration.

Note 5: Zip files are not accepted. Please ensure that each attached document is less than 3MB in size. Files larger than this will not be accepted and referred for consideration. Please save files in .pdf format, in black and white, and at a resolution of 200 dpi.

There are several required documents in the application process that impact the overall evaluation of your application.

1) Curriculum Vitae (Resume). (Save file with the following filename: Last Name, First Initial_CV.pdf.)
2) A Letter of Application. (Save file with the following filename:  Last Name, First Initial_ApplicationLetter.pdf.)

(a) providing a narrative description of how you meet the minimum degree and specialized experience qualifications, as well as the additional qualifications criteria specified in this vacancy announcement (note: qualifications will not be determined by information provided in this letter; rather, the CV must reflect the qualifications and this letter provides a narrative description); and

(b) listing names, mailing addresses, email addresses, and telephone numbers of at least three professional references.

3) Personal statement on teaching, scholarship, mentorship, and service and how you would support diversity and inclusion at the USCGA, a maximum of three double-spaced pages. (Save file with the following filename:  Last Name, First Initial_TeachPhilStmt.pdf.)

4) Proof of Education Requirement (Unofficial Transcripts) –and- if applicable, letter confirming likelihood of completing doctoral degree by August 5th, 2023. (Save file with all consolidated transcripts with the following filename:  Last Name, First Initial_Transcripts.pdf.)

You must provide evidence of your education by submitting legible copies of your unofficial degree transcripts from accredited colleges/universities. If tentatively selected for this position, you must submit official transcripts to the Human Resources office prior to receiving a firm offer of employment. Applicants are highly encouraged to proactively order a copy of their official transcripts to be delivered to their home address and be readily available. Foreign education completed in foreign colleges or universities may be used to meet federal qualification requirements if you can show that your foreign education is comparable to education received in accredited institutions in the U.S. It is your responsibility to provide such evidence, e.g., an evaluation statement, with your application. Additional information is available on the Department of State site under evaluation of foreign degrees for a U.S. Government application, linked here: https://www.state.gov/family-liason-office/family-member-employment/family-member-employment-in-the-d-c-area/evaluation-of-foreign-degrees/

Additionally, if you are claiming Veterans’ preference or if you are currently on active duty:

5) Legible Member 4 copy showing character of service of latest-issued DD-214. Please see Feds Hire Vets for details. (Save file with the following filename:  Last Name, First Initial/DD214.pdf.)
(a) Veterans claiming 5-point veterans' preference must submit legible Member 4 Copy DD214(s) indicating Character of Service. 5-point preference will not be granted if appropriate documentation is not submitted with your application.

(b) 30% Disabled Veterans must submit their Member 4 Copy DD-214(s), which includes Character of Service, a fully completed SF-15, and VA Disability Letter with percentage of disability OR documentation of disability determination from a branch of the Armed Forces which reflects a compensable service-connected disability of 30% or more. (Save file with the following filename: Last Name, First Initial_DD214.pdf; Last Name, First Initial_SF15.pdf; and Last Name, First Initial_VAldr.pdf.)

(c) Other 10 point Preference Eligibles must submit applicable Member 4 Copy DD-214(s), which includes Character of Service, a fully completed SF-15, and all required documentation described on the back of the SF-15 which proves that you are entitled to such preference. 10-point preference will not be granted if appropriate documentation is not submitted with your application. See above for guidance on titling documents.

(d) If you are a current active duty military member who does not have a DD214 and are claiming preference under the Veterans Opportunity to Work (VOW) Act, you must submit certification from the Armed Forces indicating that you will be discharged or released under honorable conditions from active duty within 120 days from the date on the certification document. Certifications must be on letterhead from the appropriate military branch and include the following information: military dates of service and expected discharge or release date, character of service, military rank, type of discharge and date when terminal leave will begin. Certifications must be signed by, or by direction of military members’ military personnel offices, unit commanders or higher headquarters. (Save file with the following filename: Last Name, First Initial_ActiveDutyCert.pdf.)
